

4 February 2021

Draft programme
Enacting sustainable system-wide change to cardiovascular care
09:00	Chair's opening remarks
09:05-09:45	Taking forward the key recommendations of the GIRFT Cardiology report <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Understand the context of GIRFT and what it means for you</li> <li>• Analyse the key recommendations</li> <li>• Explore the next steps and actions you should take</li> </ul> Dr Sarah Clarke, Joint Clinical Lead, Cardiology, GIRFT Professor Simon Ray, Joint Clinical Lead, Cardiology, GIRFT
09:45-10:00	Short break – continue the conversation in the chat room
10:00-10:40	Keeping CVD as a priority on the agenda: Why and how <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Understand the key reasons that CVD still needs to be a priority</li> <li>• Receive an update on CVDPrevent</li> <li>• Learn about practical tools to support you with this, such as the lipids and AF and cholesterol frameworks from UCLPartners</li> </ul> Dr Matt Kearney, Programme Director, UCLPartners AHSN, National Clinical Lead for CVD Prevention, Public Health England and GP in Shropshire Dr Jim Moore, President, Primary Care Cardiovascular Society (Session in association with Bayer)
10:40-11:00	Short break – continue the conversation in the chat room
11:00-11:40	Addressing inequalities in waiting list times <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Assess the progress of the restoration of cardiovascular services following the impact of coronavirus</li> <li>• Explore how to address the inequalities in early detection, referrals and waiting lists</li> <li>• Explore solutions and best practice case studies for reducing waiting times</li> </ul>
11:40-12:00	Short break – continue the conversation in the chat room

Copyright© 2021 Wilmington plc

This programme is a draft, Health Service Journal, part of Wilmington plc, reserves the right to alter the venue and/or speakers at any time.

Wilmington/ HSJ are pleased to have worked with Bayer on the development of the agenda. Bayer has provided funding for this meeting and is sponsoring presentations clearly outlined in the programme.

4 February 2021

12:00-12:40	Creating a sustainable, whole system approach to CVD prevention <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Identify and build the structures needed to support sustainable change</li> <li>• Who should be on the team? Drawing together the right people and organisations to drive change</li> <li>• Hear how it can be done. Learn from examples of successful cross-agency collaboration</li> </ul> Martin Kimberley, Chief Executive, Active Dorset (invited) Professor Mark Tewdwr-Jones, UCL Bartlett Professor of Cities and Regions, Centre for Advanced Spatial Analysis, UCL Sarah Wilkinson, Public Safety Inclusion Manager, Humberside Fire and Rescue Service (invited)
12:40-12:50	Short break – continue the conversation in the chat room
12:50-1:30	Interactive Discussion Groups: Join these intimate and focused small-group discussions to share experiences with colleagues and get your pressing questions answered. <table border="1" data-bbox="312 1016 1495 1294"> <tr> <td data-bbox="312 1016 914 1160">Making the case for commissioning cardiac rehabilitation</td> <td data-bbox="914 1016 1495 1160">Designing a Healthcheck programme that meets the needs of your local population</td> </tr> <tr> <td data-bbox="312 1160 914 1294">Using Quality Improvement methodology to redesign services</td> <td data-bbox="914 1160 1495 1294">Overcoming the impact of COVID-19 on CPR for out of hospital cardiac arrests</td> </tr> </table>	Making the case for commissioning cardiac rehabilitation	Designing a Healthcheck programme that meets the needs of your local population	Using Quality Improvement methodology to redesign services	Overcoming the impact of COVID-19 on CPR for out of hospital cardiac arrests
Making the case for commissioning cardiac rehabilitation	Designing a Healthcheck programme that meets the needs of your local population
Using Quality Improvement methodology to redesign services	Overcoming the impact of COVID-19 on CPR for out of hospital cardiac arrests
1:30	End of live sessions

Public Sector Registration

Medical directors and associate medical directors; Clinical directors and consultant cardiologists from secondary providers; Clinical chairs and directors of commissioning from CCGs; Clinical leads and clinical directors from STPs/ICSs; Executive directors and clinical leads from GP Federations and Primary Care Networks; GPs, community pharmacists, community nurses and practice nurses; Very senior managers from arms’ length bodies including NHS England and NHS Improvement; Leaders in public health from local authorities - register your free place here

Private Sector Partnerships

Please contact Brett Mitchell to understand how you can be part of the Forum or download our brochure here

Copyright© 2021 Wilmington plc

This programme is a draft, Health Service Journal, part of Wilmington plc, reserves the right to alter the venue and/or speakers at any time.

Wilmington/ HSJ are pleased to have worked with Bayer on the development of the agenda. Bayer has provided funding for this meeting and is sponsoring presentations clearly outlined in the programme.