

HSJ CARDIO VIRTUAL FORUM

Draft Programme
Enacting sustainable system-wide change to cardiovascular care
9:00-9:35	Assessing the impact of COVID-19 on national stroke and cardiovascular plans <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Responding to the pandemic and taking forward learning on admissions and service provision• Understand the longer term effects for stroke and cardiovascular care delivery in the NHS• How the NHS can get back on track with delivering the long term plan following COVID-19 Dr Sarah Clarke, Joint Clinical Lead, Cardiology, GIRFT Professor Gary Ford, Chief Executive Officer, Oxford Academic Health Science Network Dr Raj Thakkar, Clinical Commissioning Director, Planned Care, Bucks CCG, Cardiac lead, Oxford AHSN and LTC lead for TV SCN, NHS England Professor Neal Uren, Interventional Cardiologist, Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh (Session in association with Edwards)
9:35-9:50	Live Q&A
9:50-10:00	Short break and session change

Copyright© 2020 Wilmington plc

This programme is a draft, Health Service Journal, part of Wilmington plc, reserves the right to alter the venue and/or speakers at any time.

Wilmington/ HSJ are pleased to have worked with Bayer on the development of the agenda. Bayer has provided funding for this meeting and is sponsoring presentations clearly outlined in the programme. A Bayer employee will be delivering a presentation at this meeting.

Wilmington/ HSJ would like to thank our key partner Sanofi for supporting this event. Sanofi had had no editorial input into the event with the exception of their sponsored session.

HSJ CARDIO VIRTUAL FORUM

10:00-10:30	CVDPrevent: Driving change in the context of COVID-19 <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Understand how to use the data from the national primary care audit to identify how many of the six high risk conditions are potentially undiagnosed, undertreated or overtreated• Hear tangible examples of how the information from the audit can drive change and underpin prevention work and ultimately address gaps in outcomes• Learn about a framework being developed by UCLPartners to support PCNs and primary care to do things differently post-covid, including remote monitoring and proactive management for CVD Dr Matt Kearney, Programme Director, UCLPartners AHSN, National Clinical Lead for CVD Prevention, Public Health England and GP in Shropshire Lorraine Oldridge, National Lead – National Cardiovascular Intelligence Network (NCVIN), Public Health England (Session in association with Bayer)
10:30-10:40	Live Q&A
10:40-11:10	Short break and session change

Copyright© 2020 Wilmington plc

This programme is a draft, Health Service Journal, part of Wilmington plc, reserves the right to alter the venue and/or speakers at any time.

Wilmington/ HSJ are pleased to have worked with Bayer on the development of the agenda. Bayer has provided funding for this meeting and is sponsoring presentations clearly outlined in the programme. A Bayer employee will be delivering a presentation at this meeting.

Wilmington/ HSJ would like to thank our key partner Sanofi for supporting this event. Sanofi had had no editorial input into the event with the exception of their sponsored session.

HSJ CARDIO VIRTUAL FORUM

11:10-11:40	The AAC: Optimising Lipid Management Session Overview: Introducing the AAC – Matt Whitty, Interim Director of Innovation, Research and Life Sciences and Chief Executive of the Accelerated Access Collaborative AHSNs: Increasing adoption and spread – Maria Roche, Interim CEO, AHSN North East and North Cumbria and Dr Dermot Neely, Specialist Advisor AHSN North East and North Cumbria (This webinar is sponsored by Sanofi, who are working in partnership with the AAC) MAT-GB-2002170 (V1.0) DoP September 2020
11:40-11:50	Live Q&A
11:50-12:05	Short break and session change
12:05-12:35	Overcoming the challenges of managing cardiometabolic disease <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Examine the cardiometabolic pathway in the context of COVID-19• Address the cardiovascular risk for those with diabetes• Discuss a blueprint for putting together a cardiometabolic pathway Professor Ramzi Ajjan, Consultant in Diabetes and Endocrinology, Leeds University and Leeds Teaching Hospitals Trust Dr Nadeem Ashraf, Medical Affairs, Boehringer-Ingelheim Ltd Professor Wasim Hanif, Professor of Diabetes & Endocrinology, Consultant Physician & Head of Service, University Hospital Birmingham Professor Partha Kar, National Specialty Advisor, Diabetes, NHS England and GIRFT Co-lead, Diabetes, NHS Improvement

Copyright© 2020 Wilmington plc

This programme is a draft, Health Service Journal, part of Wilmington plc, reserves the right to alter the venue and/or speakers at any time.

Wilmington/ HSJ are pleased to have worked with Bayer on the development of the agenda. Bayer has provided funding for this meeting and is sponsoring presentations clearly outlined in the programme. A Bayer employee will be delivering a presentation at this meeting.

Wilmington/ HSJ would like to thank our key partner Sanofi for supporting this event. Sanofi had had no editorial input into the event with the exception of their sponsored session.

HSJ CARDIO VIRTUAL FORUM

	(Session in association with Boehringer Ingelheim)
12:35-12:50	Live Q&A and Chair's Closing Remarks
End of live sessions

Registration

Medical directors and associate medical directors; Clinical directors and consultant cardiologists from secondary providers; Clinical chairs and directors of commissioning from CCGs; Clinical leads and clinical directors from STPs/ICSs; Executive directors and clinical leads from GP Federations and Primary Care Networks; GPs, community pharmacists, community nurses and practice nurses; Very senior managers from arms' length bodies including NHS England and NHS Improvement; Leaders in public health from local authorities - register your free place here

Partnership Enquiries

Please contact Brett Mitchell to understand how you can be part of the Forum or download our brochure here

Copyright© 2020 Wilmington plc

This programme is a draft, Health Service Journal, part of Wilmington plc, reserves the right to alter the venue and/or speakers at any time.

Wilmington/ HSJ are pleased to have worked with Bayer on the development of the agenda. Bayer has provided funding for this meeting and is sponsoring presentations clearly outlined in the programme. A Bayer employee will be delivering a presentation at this meeting.

Wilmington/ HSJ would like to thank our key partner Sanofi for supporting this event. Sanofi had had no editorial input into the event with the exception of their sponsored session.